Once we receive all the required documents from you along with the appraisal, the file is given to the underwriter. If the underwriter approves the loan you will receive a Commitment Letter. The Attorney Review Fee is payable to the bank's attorney to review the title work and the legal package prepared by the Attorney or Title Company (Closing Agent). The Commitment Letter will have all the information you need to forward the check to the bank attorney. The Bank's Review Attorney, the Closing Agent and our Closer will work together to clear any title requirements. Once our attorney has issued a clear to close and all underwriting conditions have been met, you will be contacted to schedule your closing.

Your closing costs will include fees for the Closing Agent, charges for Title Work, Recording Fees and Odd Days Interest (estimated at 15 days for calculation purposes.) We require escrowed funds for the payment of your Real Estate Taxes. Prior to closing you would be required to provide proof of adequate Homeowners (Hazard) Insurance. Thank you for your interest in our mortgage programs. We look forward to working with you on your mortgage financing.

Uniform Residential Loan Application — Unmarried Addendum

For Borrower Selecting the Unmarried Status

Lenders Instructions for Using the Unmarried Addendum

The Lender may use the Unmarried Addendum only when a Borrower selected “Unmarried” in Section 1 and the information collected is necessary to determine how State property laws directly or indirectly affecting creditworthiness apply, including ensuring clear title.

For example, the Lender may use the Unmarried Addendum when the Borrower resides in a State that recognizes civil unions, domestic partnerships, or registered reciprocal beneficiary relationships or when the property is located in such a State. “State” means any state, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or possession of the United States.

If you selected “Unmarried” in Section 1, is there a person who is not your legal spouse but who currently has real property rights similar to those of a legal spouse? NO YES

If YES, indicate the type of relationship and the State in which the relationship was formed. For example, indicate if you are in a civil union, domestic partnership, registered reciprocal beneficiary relationship, or other relationship recognized by the State in which you currently reside or where the property is located.
